REGULATION No. II OF 1895.

(Passed on the 10th day of October 1895).

A Regulation to assimilate the law relating to Post Offices in Mysore to that which is from time to time in force in British India.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make better provision for the efficient working of the British Postal Department in the Territories of Mysore; Her Highness the Maharani-Regent is pleased to enact as follows :—

Commencement.

1. This Regulation shall come into force from the date of the passing thereof.

Repeal.

2. Regulation III of 1894 is hereby repealed.

Offenders against the Post Office Act in Mysore liable to be tried and punished in the same manner as they would be if the offence were committed in British India.

3. Every person who, within the Territories of Mysore, commits or omits to do an act which, if committed or omitted to be done by him in British India, would render him liable to punishment under the provisions of the Indian Post Office Act XIV of 1866 as amended by subsequent enactments, and of all rules and orders having the force of law issued thereunder by the Government of India, shall be liable to the punishment provided by Act XIV of 1866 as amended by subsequent enactments.

Liability of all offenders under the preceding section, but European British subjects, to be tried and punished in Mysore as in British India.

4. Every person liable to punishment under the foregoing section shall be liable to be tried and punished within the Territories of Mysore in the same manner as he would have been liable to be tried and punished if the act had been committed or omitted as aforesaid within British India: provided that a European British subject so liable shall be tried in accordance with the practice affecting the trial of European British subjects for offences committed in Mysore.

The Post Office Act to equally protect Government and its servants in British India and in the State of Mysore, and to apply equally to both the Territories.

5. The protection accorded to Government and its servants in the discharge of their duty under the Post Office Act of British India shall be equally accorded in the State of Mysore, and the law of British India for the regulation of Post Offices as well as rules and orders having the force of law in British India shall be deemed to apply to the Territories of the Mysore Government so far as they may be suitable.

K. SHESHADRI IYER, Dewan of Mysore.
